- Sufyan
 - Arm needs to set up an Eclair license on their own server and have discussed the options with Bugseng
 - Linaro is currently managing over 15 licenses in a shared pool

- After much discussion it was decided that for the short term, they would replicate the setup that Linaro has
- Next steps
 - Bugseng has sent the Linaro agreement (with consent) to Arm for internal review/discussion
 - Bugseng will also create a new agreement for Arm once the details have been finalized
